

LOTI NAMBOMBE

Diversity & Inclusion Ambassador

As an anti-racism advocate, passionate school speaker, Real Talks podcast host, and Make Life Kind Charity Lead, Loti's passion for supporting young people doesn't end in the classroom. He is dedicated to promoting diversity, championing mental health awareness, and eliminating racism through both his school sessions and his ongoing, impactful charity work.

Loti uses his personal experience to help young people tackle racism and prioritise their mental health. His workshops are designed to support schools in combating racism and bullying, helping schools to gain their anti-racism status, and encouraging young people to be kinder to themselves and to others.
