

JACK HUNTER-SPIVEY

Paralympic Medalist & Comedian

Born with Cerebral Palsy, Jack was blind and deaf for the first 9 months of his life. Now, he's a Table Tennis Commonwealth Champion, Paralympic medalist, and stand-up comedian who has overcome extreme physical, mental and socioeconomic barriers to achieve his dreams of sporting greatness.

Starting his sporting journey in a local youth club at 10 years' old - he is passionate about how sports and disability visibility is crucial for young people. His sessions cover: his journey to the Paralympics, how sports changed his life, why fighting disability stigmas in school is so important, mental health awareness, and so much more.
